G. Washington

President 1789-1797

GEORGE WASHINGTON, 1st President of the United States. Born Popes Creek Westmoreland County, Va., Feb. 22, 1732. Died Mt. Vernon, Va., Dec. 14, 1799, aged 67 years. Served as President two terms, April 30, 1789 to March 3, 1797. Eight years in politics he was a Federal and was unanimously chosen President of the United States by the electors at 57 years of age, and guided the young republic through the first trying years of its history.

(John Adams served as Vice President.)

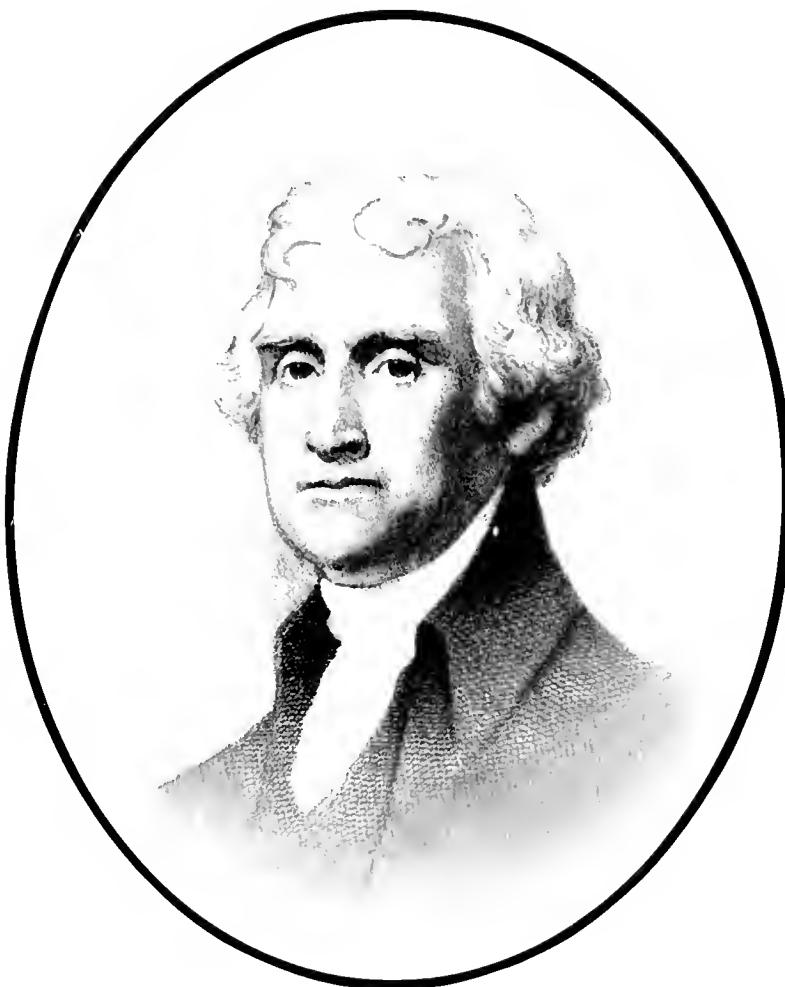

John Adams

President 1797-1801

JOHN ADAMS, 2d President of the United States. Born Braintree, Mass., Oct. 31, 1735. Died Braintree, July 4, 1826, aged 91 years. Served as President one term, March 4, 1797 to March 3, 1801, four years, after serving two terms as Vice President. In politics he was a Federal and was chosen President of the United States by a small majority at 62 years of age. The Presidency of John Adams was not smooth as we were entering upon a period when our party strife was determined by foreign rather than American political issues.

(Thomas Jefferson served as Vice President.)

Thomas Jefferson

President 1801-1809

THOMAS JEFFERSON, 3d President of the United States. Born Shadwell, Albemarle Co., Va., April 2, 1743. Died Monticello, Va., July 4, 1826, aged 83 years. Served as President two terms, March 4, 1801 to March 3, 1809, eight years. He was elected at the age of 58 years by the Jeffersonian or Democratic (then called Republican) party which he founded. His first election was by a small majority, and the second was nearly unanimous. He was author of the Declaration of Independence. The "Louisiana Purchase" was made during his administration.

(Aaron Burr served as Vice President first term)

(George Clinton as Vice President second term)

James Madison

President 1809-1817

JAMES MADISON, 4th President of the United States—Born Port Conway, Va., March 16, 1751—Died Montpelier, Orange Co., Va., June 28, 1836, aged 85 years. Served as President two terms, March 4, 1809 to March 3, 1817. 58 years of age when installed. In politics he was a Jeffersonian Democrat and was elected and re-elected by a large majority. The war of 1812 with Great Britain took place during his administration. (Geo. Clinton served as Vice President first term.) (Elbridge Gerry as Vice President second term.)

James Monroe

President 1817-1825

JAMES MONROE, 5th President of the United States. Born Westmoreland Co., Va., April 28, 1758. Died New York City, July 4, 1831, aged 73 years. Served as President two terms March 4, 1817 to March 3, 1825. 58 years old when installed. He was elected as a Democrat by a large majority, and on his reelection he received 231 of the 232 electoral votes. He promulgated the famous Monroe Doctrine.

(Daniel D. Tompkins served as Vice President.)

John Quincy Adams

President 1825-1829

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS, 6th President of the United States. Born Braintree, Mass. July 11, 1767. Died Washington, D. C., Feb. 23, 1848, aged 80 years. Served as President one term, March 4, 1825 to March 3, 1829. He was elected president as a Democrat by the House of Representatives, none of the Presidential candidates having a majority in the electoral college. He was 58 years old when elected. The Whig party came into existence during his administration.

(John C. Calhoun served as Vice President.)

Andrew Jackson
President 1829-1837

ANDREW JACKSON, 7th President of the United States. Born in the Waxhaw settlement on the border between North and South Carolina, March 15, 1767. Died at the Hermitage, near Nashville, Tenn., June 8, 1845, aged 78 years. Served as President two terms, March 4, 1829 to March 3, 1837. He was elected by the Democratic party when 62 years old and proved to be with the mass of people, the most popular President since Washington, and was looked upon as the great military hero of the day. The period of Jackson's Presidency was one of the most remarkable in the history of our country.

(John C. Calhoun served as Vice President first term.)

(Martin Van Buren as Vice President second term.)

Martin Buren,

President 1837-1841

MARTIN VAN BUREN, 8th President of the United States. Born Kinderhook, Columbia Co., N. Y., Dec. 5, 1782. Died Kinderhook July 24, 1862, aged 80 years. Served as President one month, March 4, to April 4, 1841. He was nominated by the Whig party and received 234 electoral votes out of 304. Died one month after his inauguration, the first President to die in office.

(John Tyler served as Vice President.)

John Tyler

President 1841-1845

JOHN TYLER, 10th President of the United States. Born Greenway, Va., March 29, 1790. Died Richmond, Va., Jan. 18, 1862, aged 72 years. Served as President 3 years 11 months, April 6, 1841 to March 3, 1845, being the unexpired term of Wm. Henry Harrison. He was elected as Vice President at the age of 51 years as a Whig on the ticket with Mr. Harrison and was installed as President upon the latter's death. (At the time of his death he was a member of the Congress of the Confederate States.)

James K. Polk

President 1845-1849

JAMES K. POLK, 11th President of the United States. Born Mecklenburg Co. N. C., Nov. 2, 1795. Died Nashville, Tenn., June 15, 1849, aged 54 years. Served as President one term, March 4, 1845 to March 3, 1849. 49 years old when installed. He was nominated by the Democratic party and elected by a majority in the popular vote of about 40,000. The Mexican War occurred during his administration.
